DEFENSE COMMISSARY AGENCY

1300 E Avenue, Fort Lee, Virginia 23801-1800

Randall S. “Randy” Eller Acting Director of Logistics

Randall S. Eller is the acting director of logistics for the Defense Commissary Agency, headquartered at Fort Lee, Virginia, a position he has held since December 2018. As the agency’s logistics director, Mr. Eller oversees the operations and business processes of nine overseas central distribution centers, the central meat processing plant in Europe, management and accountability for operational equipment and supplies, and the agency’s distribution and transportation operations supporting nearly 240 commissaries in 13 countries and 800 dedicated employees.

Mr. Eller has more than 43 years of combined military and civil service. Prior to his current assignment, he served as deputy director of logistics, responsible for managing operational equipment and supplies, the agency’s distribution and transportation operations, property book division, and the recycling and food bank division.

Mr. Eller began his commissary career as an enlisted airman assigned to the Air Force Commissary Service (AFCOMS) and culminated a 20-year Air Force career as a senior master sergeant and served as a store director for commissaries at Fort Belvoir, Virginia; Naval Air Station Jacksonville, Florida; Shaw Air Force Base, South Carolina; and Royal Air Force Bentwaters United Kingdom. He also served as the site commander of the troop support mission for Operation Provide Comfort in Northern Iraq and Operation Restore Hope in Mogadishu Somalia.

He is the recipient of the Superior Service Award, the Office of the Secretary of Defense Medal for Exceptional Civilian Service, six Office of the Secretary of Defense awards for excellence and numerous DOD and military service awards.
