DEFENSE COMMISSARY AGENCY
1300 E Avenue, Fort Lee, Virginia 23801-1800

Teena P. Standard Headquarters Chief of Staff

Teena P. Standard is the Defense Commissary Agency's headquarters chief of staff. Ms. Standard manages the daily operations and interrelations of the DeCA headquarters staff, serving as the principal business management advisor to the agency's chief operating officer and the director.

In her previous assignment, Ms. Standard had served since 2013 as the executive officer to the DeCA director, providing direct support to the agency director by assisting in management and providing authoritative advice and recommendations on line and staff programs with in-depth analysis of key operational, management, and administrative programs and systems. She assisted the DeCA director in planning, evaluating, integrating and coordinating activities from internal agency directors, division chiefs and directors as well as actions from the Department of Defense, stakeholders and industry partners.

Ms. Standard had also served in a dual-hatted role as both DeCA's chief of staff and executive officer from April 2018 to June 2019.

Prior to becoming the director's executive officer, Ms. Standard was chief of the executive services division, following an assignment as a process improvement specialist, specializing in Lean Six Sigma, in DeCA's Corporate Planning Directorate. Ms. Standard has served in many leadership positions in the field, region and headquarters functional areas.

Ms. Standard began her federal civilian career with the Air Force as a clerk typist. She subsequently joined the depot and worldwide supply corps. She joined the Air Force Commissary Service in 1989 as part of a pilot program to order commissary products locally and ship them to commissaries located in Turkey and Greece.
